

Inspiring, uplifting accounts of people who prove you can make a difference!

PASSIONARY (def): One inspired passionately through vision and compassion to actively change the world for the better.

Have you ever wanted to make a difference in the world but didn't know where to start? Were you overwhelmed because you had neither the means nor avenues to pursue? Have you thought: "what difference can I make? I'm just one person?" After reading this spellbinding book your heart may be touched and changed forever—and you'll never question what you can accomplish again.

Passionaries' thirty-five chapters profile leaders of successful volunteer-driven non-profit organizations that are significantly impacting millions of lives. Each story chronicles the personal inspiration behind the organization and the obstacles its creator had to overcome. The passionate entrepreneurs behind these organizations range in age from six to eighty-nine. Some are famous, some lesser known, but they all have accomplished extraordinary change. These heroes are making the world a better place and paving the way for millions of others to blaze their own visionary paths. Perhaps you'll be one of them!
